Sustainable Agriculture Tuesdays 2015
At the Institute of Applied Agriculture
6:00 PM in Jull Hall 1123

- February 10: Challenges and Opportunities for Beginning Farmers
  - Hannah Shear, Beginning Farmer Success, University of Maryland Extension

- February 17: Movie Screening: Symphony of the Soil

- February 24: Remediation and Revitalization of Long-Dead, Metal-Contaminated Soils
  - Dr. Rufus Chaney, Agricultural Research Service, USDA

- March 3: Introduction to Permaculture
  - Lincoln Smith, Forested
  - Michael Carmichael, Arboretum and Botanical Garden, University of Maryland

- March 10: Saving the Chesapeake Bay: The Role of the Maryland Grazers Network
  - Rob Schnabel, Chesapeake Bay Foundation and Maryland Grazers Network

- March 24: Crossroads Community Food Network: Connecting the Dots in our Local Food System
  - Christie Balch, Crossroads Community Food Network

- March 31: Fermentation in the Local Food Movement
  - Meaghan Carpenter, HEX Ferments

- April 7: Aquaculture and Aquaponics
  - Mchezaji “Che” Axum, Muirkirk Farm, University of the District of Columbia
  - Dr. Andrew Lazur, Sea Grant Extension Programs, University of Maryland Extension

- April 21: The “How” and “Why” of Organic: Certification, Labels, and Standards
  - Betsy Rakola, National Organic Program, USDA

- April 28: Certified Humane Labeling
  - Emily Thomas, Humane Farm Animal Care

- May 5: Green Tidings: From Farm to Food Truck
  - Chef Will Rogers, UMD Dining Services
  - Allison Lilly, UMD Green Dining
  - Guy Kilpatrick, Terp Farm

- May 12: Raising Heritage Livestock on a Small Family Farm
  - Doug and Lori Hill, Cabin Creek Heritage Farm

Sustainable Agriculture Tuesdays are part of the campus-wide Sustainable Tuesdays lecture series, co-sponsored by the Institute of Applied Agriculture, the School of Architecture, and the Office of Sustainability